

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since Indiana's law has been in effect we receive fewer than 3 calls per month where we used to receive up to 3 a day. I would not like to see any action by the FCC to bring this old hassle to our personal lives at home back.